

UNBELIEF

It is a cold January day in 2007. Three young guys are talking about big dreams. The goal is an uncompromising career as musicians and the means is melodic metal. With an inclination towards aggressive metal and a secret preference for pop UNBELIEF will be the course towards success.

Since the tender start the quartet has blasted through the landscape at a crushing speed. Nothing can stop these guys from fulfilling their dreams and every challenge has made UNBELIEF stronger as a band.

"I absolutely predict them an influential future in Denmark and abroad."

- Albertsen, Metalized

Live has always been the true format of UNBELIEF and in only a few years the band has accomplished to make their name noticed by performing with prominent names like Hatebreed, Warbringer, Artillery, Mercenary, Entombed, Submission, and As We Fight.

"They were unbelievably energetic and took their performance and stage-look seriously as much as their music."

- Lohmann, Upcomming.dk

On February 5, 2010, UNBELIEF released their debut album "Dread" through Gateway Music, who also released their 2008 debut EP "Fuck Me Break Me Shape Me". With the release of this album the bar has been raised for UNBELIEF and they will never deviate from their path. This band seizes the opportunities when offered and otherwise keep working hard, as seen in their professionalism which reflects their indescribable dedication to the dream of a life as musicians.

"Unbelief kicks balls where others only kick ass!"

- Kasper Fladmose, fotograf

UNBELIEF has a solid support in their home area and with that backing, 2010 will be the year where the band in all gravity will break through the metal scene and show their native country what UNBELIEF is made of. Hereafter only the world is left to conquer...
